Dear Sir

I had the pleasure to address you a few days ago by Mr Clark. I have again taken the liberty to send you another Pupil to whom I must beg your attention. The Master under whose care he has been heretofore have found but little opportunity to his improvement and what he learnt at School he has forgot within the last Year. At least he will require to commence at the first Rudiments. I wish him taught what I requested you to teach the other Boys and I hope within one year (other than I propose leaving him with you) that he will have made considerable improvement, particularly as he is now of an age to perceive the want of education.

If you think it best, I have no objection to Henry & Thomas learning Latin. I think I should to your regret, the only reason I have for not requesting you to teach them Latin - namely that they are unfitted for business, and that a English Education was ever the purpose you will say that I have very contradictory ideas. I cannot allow it.

I shall feel much obliged if you will have the kindness to supply the little wants of the Boys from time to time, they will require as the Winter approaches worsted socks strong shoes which can be had at Dublin better than here any other thing that you may conceive they stand in need of and that will add to their comfort please to order for them and your draft on me at sight for the amount of them shall be duly honoured.

I have given John Tiffin Pounds 10 for his half years board in advance, with him as with the others you will please point out the way in which you wish 1 The payments to be made and your wishes shall be complied with Henry & Thomas are young and have tried to remain at school you may therefore teach them what you please.

~~If I can be of any service~~ to you leave you with ~~affection~~ Command me

Fleming

Dear Sir

Yours respectfully

Sam. Clemens
