

Winners of Gold In Diary Contest

This List Will Be Eagerly
Scanned by Thousands Who Have Been Keeping Diaries
in Dr. Chase's Almanac.

This annual competition has done much to encourage the useful and interesting habit of making note of business transactions and social events.

So many experts have developed that we have been obliged to divide up the prizes this year. This seemed to be the only way to ensure a fair recognition of diaries of about equal merit.

Dr. Chase's Almanac has been sent out to practically every home in Canada, 1,400,000 in all. If your copy has not reached you it will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of your name and address. In the almanac you will find full particulars in reference to the Diary Contest now on.

Dear Madam:

We are sending you enclosed herewith our check for $5.00 and want to congratulate you as the writer of one of the best diaries entered in the competition for 1912.

As you will no doubt receive many congratulations as a winner in the contest, we suppose that you will not lose an opportunity for saying a good word for Dr. Chase's medicines and if you have a chance to send us a letter of recommendation for any of the medicines, either from yourself or others who have used them, we shall appreciate your kindness.

You will find enclosed a copy of the letter which is sent to persons who did not win a prize. This contains a full list of the prize winners. Your Almanac is being returned to you under separate cover.

Yours truly,

WAC/GLE
