

This is the last Will and Testament of me, Sarah Jane Love of Westville in the County of Pictou, Spinster, I hereby revoking all former Wills.

I direct all my just debts, funeral and testamentary expenses to be paid and satisfied by my executor hereinafter named as soon as conveniently may be after my decease.

I give and bequeath to my niece Sarah Lippencott, one feather bed and bolster and pillows.

I give and bequeath to my grand niece Mrs. John Davine, cash and picture of my mother, also one feather bed, bolster and pillows.

I give and bequeath to my friend Mrs. James Boyd of Westville, my gold watch.

I give and bequeath to Mrs. Frederick McKenzie of Westville, my gold watch chain.

I give and bequeath to Mrs. George McKenzie of Westville, my silk quilt.

I give and bequeath to St. Basil Church Rectory Fund, Westville, the sum of One Hundred Dollars.

I authorize and empower my executor hereinafter named to sell my house and lot situate on Queen Street in the Town of Westville, and to divide the moneys obtained from such sale equally between my niece Mary Ann Henton and my brother David William Love.

I give and bequeath the residue of my estate to my heirs as provided by the Revised Statutes of Nova Scotia, 1900, Chapter 140, section 4, sub-section 2.

I nominate and appoint William G. Robertson of Westville in the County of Pictou, Barrister-at-law, to be the executor of this my last will and authorize him to be paid for any professional services he may render in connection with carrying out the provisions of this my will.

Dated at Westville, N. S., this 16th day of October, A. D., 1905.

Signed, published and declared by the above named Sarah Jane Love, testatrix, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, both present at the same time, who at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, have herewith subscribed our names as witnesses.
