I, John McGara of Plainfield in the County of Pictou, farmer, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

First. I give and devise to my sons Andrew M. and James Foreman McGara all the real estate property where I reside, to be equally divided by themselves, when attaining the age of twenty-one years, and in case of failing to agree, to submit the same to arbitrators in the usual way.

Second. I devise that all the deposit money that I may have in the Bank in Pictou after my death to be equally divided also all of my children.

Third. I devise that all the personal property, including house furniture, will be left on the said premises, and be equally divided between the above named sons, the same as the real property will be divided Fourth. I devise that all the live stock, horses, cattle and sheep, in the event of my decease, will be sold under the direction of John McGara, Jr. and Graham McGara, who will act as guardians for the minor children, if they consider that to be the best way to do, and from the moneys arising from such sale, to pay all just debts, and the probating of this will, also to work and take charge of all the real Estate property above mentioned, and use the increase of the same for the keep and education of the minor children until they are all twenty one years of age, and that my unmarried daughters will have a home in the said premises until they have a home of their own.

Fifth. I appoint Daniel Campbell of West Branch River John and John D.
McKey of Plainfield to be the Executors of this my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof I the said John McGara the Testator have herewith set my hand this twenty third day of December A.D. 1912.

Signed by the said Testator as for his last will and Testament in the presence of us present at the same time, and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses.

(SD) John McGara, Jr.

(SD) J. Graham McGara
