In the name of God, Amen,

I Robert M. Carson, of River John, County of Tictou, Province of Nova Scotia, and Dominion of Canada, being in feeble health of body but perfect in mind and memory, and calling to mind that it is appointed unto all men to die, do hereby thus make my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say.

First of all I commend my spirit to God who gave it, through the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, and my body to the dust, to be interred after the manner of a decent Christian burial, and as touching such worldly effects wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me, I bequeath and dispose of the same in the following manner, that is to say.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Catherine the lot of land adjoining the same, on the north west side of the shore road, consisting of about twenty acres, also all my household furniture, and effects, subject to the following reservations, to my son Robert twenty volumes of my library, to my son James, twenty volumes, to my son Mal (or Low), twenty volumes, to my son John, twenty volumes, such volumes to be chosen by them, subject to the approval of my executors, to my son William my writing desk and twenty volumes, to my son George Basil my gold watch, and chain, to my son Arthur, the musical box, and my silver headed walking stick, to my daughter Elizabeth (or Jane), the Parlor organ, to my daughter Isabella Margaret, my gold and silver medals.

I likewise bequeath to my said wife Catherine all the live stock and agricultural implements, which I may possess at the time of my death,

I give and bequeath to my son Alexander Oswald the lot of land on the shore, known as the W. Millan property, bounded on the East by the lands of Richard Robinson, & on the west by the lands of Alexander Fullerton, containing about fifty acres.

I give and bequeath to Annis Jane Dunn, in recognition of long and faithful service, fifty dollars and twenty volumes of my library.

As to my remaining personal property, if any, after my just debts are paid, I desire that it be divided thus, two thirds to my wife Catharine, and one third, to my daughter Elizabeth Jane.

Lastly, I appoint Rev. James W. Fraser of Scotsburn, and John M. Menzie Esq. Merchant, of River John, both in the County of Pictou, joint executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto subscribe my name and set my seal on this the twenty seventh day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety four.
