

In the name of God Amen, I Daniel McKay Farmer of Holliston in the County of Natick, and Province of Massachusetts being mindful of my mortality though at present of perfect mind and memory. Do make and declare this my last Will and Testament this thirteenth day of December 1880, in manner and form following, that is to say, First I commit my soul unto the hands of Almighty God and beseege of pardon through the merits of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Saviour of sinners. Second, I give and bequeath my beloved wife Ann McKay One third of my Real and personal Estate South of the Intercolonial Railroad for her maintenance during her natural life if she should survive me. Third, I give and bequeath my daughter Catherine Cameron the dwelling house she now occupies and the garden attached thereto, and South to an elm tree on the Bank of the River, thence parallel with a fence on the North side of the garden and also a right of way to Holliston. Fourth, I give and bequeath my son Daniel H. McKay the residue of my real and personal Estate South of said Intercolonial Railroad, provided that he works the farm judiciously, is dutiful to his Mother, remains at home in the evenings only when necessarily called away, and further that he keeps strictly temperate. I further give him the benefit of the lease from the Acadia Coal Co. and the one third already bequeathed to his Mother shall his after death. Fifth, I give and bequeath my daughter Sarah Bowser the Bill of Sale of her Furniture in my possession. Sixth, I give and bequeath my son

Joseph M. May, One dollar.
Seventh, I give and bequeath my son James D.
McMay One dollar.

Eighth, I give my son David R. M. May, the lot of land the Temperance Hall now stands on.

Ninth, I give and bequeath my grandson James Duncan M. May Robert's son the lot and building on Trout Creek which his mother now occupies and also the Hay Scale provided that all the produce sold of my farm be weighed free of charge. I will and direct that his mother have the use of the house during her natural life should she need.

Tenth, I give and bequeath my daughter Harriet J. May One Cow to be given when convenient between my decease and five years thereafter.

Eleventh, I give and bequeath my son Isaac One dollar.

Thereby appoint my son Joseph M. May and James Cotton Executors to this my last will and Testament, revoking and cancelling every other will and Testament by me heretofore made.
I hereunto set my hand Seal the day and year first written.

Signed, Sealed, and delivered in our presence who at his request in his presence and in presence of each other, subscribed our names as witnesses.

Signed Alex Grant
Daniel J. McKay

Signed
Duncan M. May (S)

I Duncan M. Kay Farmer, Stillarton, do make this my Codicil, hereby confirming my last will made on the 13th day of December 1882, and do hereby, give and bequeath to my daughter Harriet J. Wray, in addition to my former bequest, the sum of One hundred dollars in the Cooperative Society Westville.

I also give and bequeath to my son David R. McKay, the sum of One hundred dollars in the Co-operative Society Westville, in addition to my former bequest.

In witness whereof, I have signed and sealed this instrument as my Codicil at Stillarton this 19th day of January 1883.

Witnesses	}	Signed Duncan M. Kay
Signed, Alex Grant
— Daniel J. McKay

County of Victoria H.

In the Court of Probate of Wills, &c.

I do hereby Certify that the foregoing instrument con-sisting of two & a half pages, is an exact and literal Copy of the last will & testament & Codicil thereto of Duncan M. Kay late of Stillarton in the County of Victoria, Farmer, deceased, testate, which has been duly filed and admitted to Probate, in accordance with the practice of the Court.

Given under my hand at Victoria, this twentieth day of May, A. D. 1883—

John H. Law

Registrar

To the Registrar of Deeds, for the County of Victoria—

