

I Charles M. Kenzie of New Glasgow in the County of Pictou and Province of Nova Scotia, Hotel Keeper, being infirm in body but of good and perfect memory and knowing the uncertainty of time, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament.

1. First and principally I commit my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth to be buried with a decent Christian burial, believing the same shall rise again at the general judgment.

2. To my wife, Christy M. Kenzie, I give devise and bequeath all my ^{personal} property, to be used for her support and for the education of my children by my said wife, and for their support until each of them attains the age of twenty one years.

3. To my said Children I give devise and bequeath all my real Estate (subject to the encum-brances thereon) to have and to hold the same to them, share and share alike, to each, at the death of my said wife, or on her marriage, my said wife however to receive the rents, issues and profits of the said real estate during her lifetime while she remains unmarried, for her own support and for the education and support of my children as in the last preceding paragraph mentioned.

4. Notwithstanding anything heretofore to the contrary appearing if my executors shall deem it expedient at any time in the interest of my family or estate, to sell my real Estate for want of satisfactory returns therefrom or for any other reason rendering it expedient in the opinion of my executors so to do, my said executors are hereby authorized and empowered to sell the whole or any part of such real estate in the way they see fit, and to execute a valid conveyance of the same, The proceeds of any such sale, after the payment of the encumbrances and charges against the property shall be invested by my said executors and the income therefrom paid to my wife, aforesaid during her lifetime while she remains unmarried, for her ~~support and the education~~ ^{and support} of my children, as hereinbefore mentioned, at my said wife's decease or on her marriage, the principal money arising from such sale as aforesaid shall become and be the property of my said children, share and share alike to each.

5. I appoint my said wife, Christy McKenzie, Executor, and I, Frederick Macdonald of New Glasgow, and John Macdonald of Westville, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof the said Charles McKenzie hath hereunto his hand and seal subscribed and set at New Glasgow aforesaid this first day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighty nine.

Signed

Chas McKenzie (S.S.)

The aforesaid Charles McKenzie at said New Glasgow on the said first day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine signed and sealed this instrument as and for his last Will and testament, and in at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have here unto written our names as subscribing witnesses,

Signed — Frederick McKenzie
