

This is the last will and Testament of me Robert Thompson of Glen, in Sullain's Mountains in the County of Peterborough, made this Twenty first day of February, in the year of our Lord one Thousand Eight hundred and Sixty two.

First, I grant, order, and bequeath unto my son John, and his heirs forever, all that part of my farm lot at the Glen that lieth west ward of a Blazer made across the said farm by me, which Blazer nearly runs north and south following the direction of the highlands lying to the east of the Glen Brook, with all the buildings thereon, with also all the stock farming instruments and household Furniture that may be on the place at the time of my decease, subject however to the Conditions hereafter named, That is to say, that he my said son John, shall lease the one half of the dwelling house and cellar in the possession of, and for the sole use of my wife Margaret Thompson during her life time, That he shall also deliver over to my said wife yearly and every year during her life, for Maintenance Three (300) hundred pounds of Flour, Three (300) pounds of Oatmeal, Twenty five pounds of Pot barley, Ten bushels of Potatoes, Fifty pounds of ~~Butter~~ and Forty pounds of Pork, and the sole use of the garden, That he my said son John shall likewise keep one Milk Cow, one Heifer, and four Sheep for my said wife, providing winter and summer feed for them, also he the said John shall provide sufficient quantities of fuel winter and summer made ready for use, Further if my daughter Mary will survive me unmarried, and she get married after my decease, I order my said son

I shew to give her one Cow, and six Sheep, one Bed and Bedding, but if she remain unmarried then I order my said son John to support and maintain her during her life, Comfortably according according to her degree in life.

Second, I grant, order, and bequeath unto my son Donald, his heirs and assigns the remaining part of my farm at the Glen, that is to say, that part thereof which lieth to the eastward of the foresaid Blazer, provided that he the said Donald shall settle down and reside upon it, but in the event that my said son Donald shall not take up his abode and reside upon the said land, then and in such case I grant and bequeath the said ^{land} that is to say, all the part of my said farm that lieth eastwards of the foresaid Blazer to my said son John and his heirs, he the said John paying the sum of One Hundred and twenty ($120) dollars in Cash to the said Donald, and the sum of Forty ($40) dollars more to my son John William.

Third, I nominate and appoint my said son John McPherson and Donald Cameron Angus sons my executors.

In witness whereof I the said Robert

McPherson

McPherson hereunto set my hand and seal on the day and year first above written,

Signed and sealed by the Said Robert McPherson the
