Thomas Johnston

Registrar.

Know all men by these presents that I James Chisholm of County Brack East River in the County of Pittou Farmer being of sound disposing mind and memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

First I give and bequeath to Margaret my present beloved wife the whole of the farm on which I now reside and which is on the East side of the East River in County Brack upon the following Conditions That is if my widow remains unmarried and if she will have no heir by me after this date then the property then the property to be hers but if there is an heir by me after this date then the property to be his or hers subject to my wifes dower but if my widow think proper to marry another man and no heirs by me with her then one half of said farm to be my widows property for her proper benefit and behoof forever and the other half of the farm to my eldest heir.

Second, I give and bequeath all my personal property to my beloved wife of every description (viz) Horses Cattle sheep and farming utensils of every kind, waggons sleighs and all harness and every thing belonging to the house.

Thirdly, I ordain and appoint Donald Mc Intosh Tailor, and Daniel Chisholm as Executors to this my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal and publish and declare this to be my last Will and testament in the presence of the witnesses below this 4th day of June A. D. 1890.

Signed - James Chisholm (L.S.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said James Chisholm as and for his last Will and testament
