This is a codicil to the last will and testament of me James J Paulin of Puton in the County of Puton State of Ohio which bears date the twenty seventh day of November 1902. ad

Whereas by my said will I have instructed and directed my executors and trustees therein named to sell and convert into money my property and estate. Now I hereby declare and it is my will that my said executors and trustees may postpone

The Sale and Conversion of my real and personal estate or any part thereof for as long as they shall think fit and I do further authorize and empower my executors and trustees named in said will to carry on the business of dealing in coal and wood now carried on by me at Piton and all that appertains thereto for the period of two years after my decease or for such shorter period as my said executors and trustees may think best and to employ such assistants and servants in the said business and to pay such wages and salaries as they may reasonably consider proper. I do further authorize and empower my said executors and trustees in their discretion to compromise, compound or settle any question or dispute that may arise in and about the winding up of my estate or the said business in such manner as they may think fit and generally to do and execute all such acts and things in relation to the premises as may appear to them necessary or expedient without being answerable for any loss that may arise thereby. And I direct that the interest, rents and profits and increase of my real and personal estate which shall for the time being remain unsold and unconverted including the profits arising from my said business from and after my decease shall be paid and applied to the person or persons and in the manner to whom and in what ~~circumstances~~ <sup>circumstances</sup> of the monies produced by such sale and conversion would for the time being be payable or applicable under my said will if such sale or conversion had actually been made I further will and declare that my executors and trustees may in their discretion postpone the payment of the legacies by said will bequeathed and for which no time of payment is fixed for a period not exceeding two years from the date of my death always excepting the income or annuity payable to James McDonald the whole or any part of which my executors and trustees are authorized to pay half-yearly in advance out of any monies belonging to my estate, in all other respects I ratify and confirm my said will.

I witness whereof I have set my hand to this my will this twenty fourth day of December 1902. AD
