of bed board and apparel and other necessaries and comforts of life also the large room in the north west end of the dwelling house in which I reside, during her natural life, her said support and maintenance as above described to be provided and supplied by my son David and in the event of my said son David refusing or neglecting to furnish or supply the above mentioned support for my said wife she shall be provided for and supported from and out of my estate in the way and manner that she my said wife and my executors hereafter named or one of them concurring with her may agree, but they shall in no way encumber the estate.
