

I, James Stewart of Little Harbor in the County of Pictou Miller do hereby make and declare this my last Will and testament at the same time revoking any Will or Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I give devise and bequeath to the use of my beloved wife Mary during her life all my personal property of whatsoever nature or kind excepting only my piano which I do hereby give and bequeath absolutely to my daughter Annie.

To my said wife also I give devise and bequeath all my real estate whatsoever situate for and during the term of her natural life. To my daughter Jessie wife of Alexander Grant I give devise and bequeath fifty dollars, to my daughter Agnes twenty five dollars, to my daughter Annie two hundred dollars which three several bequests to my said daughters are each to be charged upon and payable out of my lands hereinafter devised to my son Clarence P. Stewart.

From and after the decease of my said wife I give devise and bequeath all my personal property of whatsoever nature or kind excepting my piano, and all my real estate wherever situate to my said son Clarence P. Stewart his heirs and assigns for ever, said real estate however being subject to the payment thereout of the legacies heretofore bequeathed to my daughters.

I hereby nominate and appoint my said son Clarence P. Stewart executor of this my Will and testament and I direct him as soon as conveniently may be after my decease to pay all my just debts funeral and testamentary expenses.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty third day of June A.D. 1897.

Signed - James Stewart
