Said son Walter Council, all my real & state, Subject to the conditions that my daughter Ellen Council shall have a home in the house now belonging to me, so long as she remains unmarried, and also that my beloved wife Ellen Council shall have a home in the said house so long as she desires it.

It is also my wish, but this clause is not a condition to any device, or bequest made herein that my sons William Council, and Matthew Council be welcome to the hospitality of the home named to my son Walter Council as usual during my life time.

Handy approval John Ferguson of Pickon Registrar of deeds
