Registrar

The last will and testament of George D. Devoon of Harwood Hill in the County of Pickens, Farmer

I give and devise all my real and personal property of every kind unto my mother James Devoon and my wife Bessie in equal shares and to be taken by them in lieu of dower which they are or might be entitled to in any of the lands devised

I revoke all wills by me heretofore made

I appoint the Rev James W. Francis of S. C. Tebburn and John Devoon of Pickens Carpenter executors of this will Should my mother and wife sell the farm at Harwood Hill I request my mother at her death to give any unused balance of the money she may receive out of said farm to my daughter Georgia Gladys and son (not yet born) but this is to be acknowledged as a mere request and is not to affect the title to said farm or my mother's right to use the proceeds of sale in any manner whatsoever

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 21st day of November A.D. 1899

Signed and sealed and published by the testator George D. Devoon in the presence of us witnesses who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto set our hands to witness

Signed
George D. Devoon
