I hereby order that the same (excepting the two acre lot) to be sold for the support of my said wife and child, if it is absolutely necessary to do so, at the same time it is my desire that they would continue in the house and on the premises where they now reside, should there happen to be any of the Estate herein devised after the death of my wife and helpless son, then I hereby devise and bequeath the same to Anthony Calder aforesaid.

I hereby appoint my friend John M. Lewis of Westville Blacksmith, and Charles Blackie of Greenhill Farmer, both of Pictou County, executors of this my last Will.
