and effects, of which she can off at any time, to maintain herself, except what I shall hereafter give unto my daughter Annie F. Campbell, out of the proceeds of Sale of so much of the personal property as shall amount to $100, One hundred dollars, to be paid to Annie F. Campbell should she survive us, but if not to be put in the Bank for my grandson Alex. Campbell McCallum with interest accruing till he comes of age.

Should Charles McCallum neglect working the lands for her support and maintenance, But if he does owing me together with my library, mechanic tools, farming implements &c. &c. all stock, or whatever large personal property may be remaining after every thing is settled, together with all Household furniture,

Thereby constitute and appoint Duncan
