NOV 15 1910
John James
Registrar

This is the last will and testament of me James Currie of Charlottetown in Queens County in Prince Edward Island, Ex-Collector of Customs.

I hereby revoke all former wills by me at any time made and declare this to be my last will. It is my will that I buried in the old burying ground at Wood Islands in which my father was buried.

I direct my executors hereinafter named to cause my mare known as "Dolly" to be chloroformed.

I give to my servant Henry Dorion the parcel of land on the north side of the York Lane in the City Common of Charlottetown, now owned by me, containing one acre of land or thereabouts. I also give to the said Henry Dorion my mare known as "Minnie" also a cart and truck and all my farming implaments.

I give devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my real and personal property unto my executors Simon W. Crabbe, of Charlottetown, Hardware Merchant, Duncan C. McLeod of Charlottetown, Barrister and Dugald Currie of West River (brother of the late Donald Currie, formerly Collector of Customs) upon trust that the said Simon W. Crabbe, Duncan C. McLeod and Dugald Currie and the survivors and survivor of them do and shall as soon as conveniently may be after my decease, collect, get in, receive and recover such debts and sums of money as may be anyways due and owing to me at the time of my death and do and shall sell and dispose of the said real estate and such parts of said personal ~~property~~ estate as shall not consist of money and do and shall pay and apply the moneys arising from the sale of such real ~~estate~~ property and the calling in and conversion of such personal property and any ready moneys I may have at the time of my death as follows.

1. To pay my debts and funeral and testamentary expenses.
To supply a sum sufficient to put up a fitting headstone at the graves of both myself and my father and to erect a substantial fence around the said burying ground at Wood Islands.
2. To apply a sum sufficient to erect a suitable tombstone over the grave at Covehead of Mrs. Peter Doyle (whose maiden name was Sarah Flynn)
3. To pay Mary McNeill my housekeeper the sum of one thousand dollars which is hereby bequeathed to her.
