This is the Last Will and Testament of me, Mary Eastwood, of New Glasgow, in the County of Victoria, and Province of Nova Scotia, Married Woman, wife of James Eastwood, of New Glasgow, aforesaid, Jeweller:

1. I revoke all former Wills and other testamentary dispositions by me at any time heretofore made, and declare this only to be and contain my Last Will and Testament.

2. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughters, Jennie Eastwood and Hilda Eastwood, in equal shares, their and each of their heirs and assigns, all my portion, share of and interest in the real and personal property of my late father, William McIntosh, of New Glasgow aforesaid, deceased, as devised or bequeathed to me in and by his Last Will and Testament, executed the 15th day of May A. D. 1888, whether my said portion, share and interest be vested, by way of remainder, or otherwise, and I hereby declare this to be my Will for the distribution of my said portion of the said real and personal property as comprehended in and by the said Last Will and Testament of my said late father.

3. I give, devise and bequeath to my son Lewis Eastwood, one of my silver candelabrum.

4. I give, devise and bequeath to my son Ralph Eastwood the other of my silver candelabrum.

5. I give, devise and bequeath to my son Edwin Eastwood, my silver soup tureen, from or by her husband.

6. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Jennie Eastwood, my silver salver, my teapot, spoon holder, sugar and cream holders. My opal ring, my gold fob and chain, my silver backed comb, brush and mirror.

7. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Hilda Eastwood, my watch and chain, my diamond brooch, my star and crescent, my berry set, containing fruit dish, cream and sugar holders, spoon holder and fancy silver spoons.

8. It is my desire that the bequests in paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, of this my Last Will and Testament, be given to the respective beneficiaries thereof on the occasion of their respective marriages; but if, my Executors hereinafter named should find this my desire to be inexpedient or impracticable, I authorize them to carry out the provisions of the said paragraphs at such time or times as they think fit or proper.

9. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said husband, James Eastwood and my said son Ralph Eastwood, to be the Executors of this my Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto my hand and seal subscribed and set at New Glasgow aforesaid, this 27th day of November, A. D. 1908.

SIGNED, SEALED, PUBLISHED AND DECLARED by the above named Mary Eastwood, Testatrix, as and for her Last Will and Testament, in the presence of us both present at the same time, who at her request and in her presence, and in presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses; the husband of the said Testatrix not being present at the time of the execution of this her Last Will and Testament, the said Testatrix declared in our presence that she executed this her said Last Will and Testament of her free will and without any fear, threat or compulsion or other undue influence of, from or by her husband.

Signed) William A. McIntosh
