Know all men by these Presents, that I, William Grant of Coronado, Cash River, in the County of Pitkin, and Province of Nova Scotia, Farmer, being of sound disposing mind and memory do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, 1st I give and bequeath to each of my daughters, Margery, Jane and Lizzie, and Jessie Bell, the sum of five dollars, said to be paid to each on the eighteenth anniversary of her birthday.

2. I give and bequeath to my son Donald Alye all my personal estate, consisting of Stock, farming implements, body clothing &c.

3. I give and bequeath to my son Donald Alye his heirs and assigns, all my homestead farm, situate in Coronado, on second division, East side, Cash River, in the County and Province aforesaid, whereon I now live, containing one hundred and fifty acres more or less. To have and to hold the same to him, the said Donald Alye and his heirs and assigns for ever.

4. I appoint and devise that in Consideration of, and as a condition of his receiving the above named personal and real estate, he shall make the following provision for my beloved wife Elizabeth his mother, during her natural life, or while she remain ~~my~~ widow, namely, that she shall have the use of One Cow, and six sheep, to be kept by him, that he give her yearly three Cwt. of Oatmeal, two Cwt of flour, twenty five bushels of potatoes, fuel & a reasonable amount of sugar and tea, if she shall make choice of a portion or dowry rather than a comfortable living with himself, of such as his circumstances will afford, with her life interest in the house in either case, and the privilege of being conveyed to Church, and market, when required. Also that he shall support his sisters until each arrives at the age of twenty years, if necessary -

O. I appoint and ordain William Fraser, Elder, of the second session of Bridgeville, Sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament
